RIVERSIDE SYMPHONIA HONORS DOREEN WRIGHT AND ROBERT BECK AT DONOR AND SUBSCRIBER PARTY

Doreen Wright and Robert Beck of New Hope, PA were honored by the Riverside Symphonia during a donor and subscriber party held on Sunday, May 17th at Prallsville Mill in Stockton, New Jersey. About 100 guests attended the affair and Doreen and Robert were presented with a tree that will be planted at their home in New Hope, PA.

Ms. Wright stated that becoming involved with the Riverside Symphonia was an important part of helping her become a part of the community. She is grateful for the friendships she has made and more importantly is "committed to maintaining the level of wonderful music that Riverside brings to this community." Robert Beck has been a continuous supporter of the Riverside Symphonia, his most notable contribution being a series of 13 paintings he donated of Symphonia musicians that was auctioned in the 2005/2006 season. Mr. Beck continues to donate his work to help support the orchestra. Both Doreen and Bob are great ambassadors of the Symphonia and Doreen is currently working on the Riverside Symphonia's Caprio Young Artists Competition that will be held during the 2009/2010 season.
